INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

Senate Resolution No. 5—By the President and all Members of the Senate of Maryland:

Senate Resolution expressing to the Governor of Maryland sincere best wishes for a rapid recovery from his illness.

The Members of the Senate of Maryland have heard with much regret that the Governor is confined to his home by reason of illness.

We miss his familiar presence in the State House, and with esteem and much affection send to him the sincere hope of every member of the Senate that he makes a rapid recovery from his illness, so that he may return to his accustomed place in the State House; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of Maryland, That every member of this body joins in best wishes to the Governor of Maryland, and in a strong hope that he will have a quick recovery from his illness; and be it further

Resolved, That the President and the Secretary of the Senate are requested to send a copy of this Resolution to the Governor and to convey to him the best wishes and kind regards of every member of this body.

Read and adopted.
