

source of revenue, and further showing therein the public expenditures of the State, the purposes for which such expenditures were made and showing amounts claimed to be due to the State by any political subdivision or by any public officer of a political subdivision charged by law with the collection of revenues for the account of the State. Such annual report shall also set forth an estimate of the revenues and expenditures for the current fiscal year.

(b) He shall also separately report to the Legislature and to the Governor as soon as practicable after the close of each fiscal year, the names and official character or service of each person to whom any payment or allowance has been made or the purpose for which payments have been made from the appropriations for legislative expenses of the General Assembly, and separating the same into payments made for or in behalf of the Senate, and payments made for or in behalf of the House of Delegates.

He shall keep and preserve in his office [in suitable books, to be procured at the expense of the State,] full and accurate accounts of the annual revenues and expenditures of every class and description, under the proper heads thereof [, according to such forms as under the provisions of the Constitution he may prescribe]. The general books and accounts of his office shall be subject to the inspection of the Governor and members of the Legislature during regular business hours.

He shall cause to be printed or otherwise prepared, in the forms prescribed by law or usage, blank [marriage] licenses [, traders' licenses, ordinary licenses, nonresident licenses, brokers' licenses, hawkers' and peddlers' licenses, exhibition licenses, billiard table licenses, wood hucksters' licenses, and all other licenses] of every kind and description issued by the clerks of the courts of this State, and [now] authorized by law [, with the several rates, grades and descriptions thereof, with reference to the character and object of said licenses, the sum to be paid therefor, and the fractional part of the year, not less than one month or any number of months for which the same may be issued;] and [upon the requisition of the clerks of the several circuit courts, and of the Court of Common Pleas,] shall [forthwith] deliver to the said clerks the number and description of licenses required by them [for one year, or the fractional parts of the year, terminating on the thirtieth of April then next ensuing and shall take a receipt from the several clerks therefor].

The Comptroller is authorized and empowered to adjust and settle the claims of the State against all collectors, sheriffs, clerks of courts, registers of wills, and other collectors or receivers of public money and their sureties, and against corporations and individuals who may be indebted and in arrears to the State for two years whether said claims be in the form of judgment or otherwise, and for the purpose of closing all such cases the Comptroller is fully authorized to compromise the same by abating the interest that has accrued, or any portion thereof, or any part of the principal debt,
