

ures", subtitle "Apples", be and they are hereby repealed; and that new Sections 37 through 45, inclusive, be and they are hereby enacted in lieu thereof, to stand in the place of the sections so repealed, and to read as follows:

37.

No person shall pack, possess, expose, store or transport for sale, or sell, or in any manner represent for sale, apples in closed packages, except as provided in this subtitle.

38.

The Maryland standards of grades for apples shall hereafter be the current United States Standards for Apples, as provided, amended, revised and made effective from time to time by Federal statute and duly promulgated regulations of the United States Department of Agriculture, unless otherwise provided by duly promulgated regulations of the Maryland State Board of Agriculture.

39.

No person shall pack, sell or offer to sell, possess, or transport any apples in closed packages not properly designated with respect to the following: (1) a grade standard, as provided in this subtitle, (2) the variety, (3) the minimum size, (4) a count or quantity declaration and (5) the name and address of the packer or distributor. Said designation shall be plainly and conspicuously shown on each package, provided however in transparent consumer packs, stuffers may be used for markings and placed inside such packages in a manner that is plainly readable.

40.

When apples are packed in used packages, any markings pertaining to previous contents of such packages not applicable to new contents shall be obliterated and the declarations required under this subtitle shall be required.

The Maryland State Board of Agriculture through its duly appointed agents and enforcing officers, is hereby authorized, directed and empowered to enforce the provisions of this subtitle and shall have the power to define, promulgate and enforce such reasonable rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary therefor and as may be not inconsistent therewith.

In order to carry out the provisions of this subtitle, the State Board of Agriculture, or its agents and employees, are authorized to enter during the usual hours of business, any packing shed, warehouse, cold storage, store, building, market or any other place, carrier, conveyance, or vehicle at, in or from which any apples are packed or sold, offered or exposed for sale for the purpose of determining whether the provisions of this subtitle or the rules and regulations lawfully promulgated in pursuance thereof shall have been violated; and in addition, if the Board finds that the apples in his possession are in violation of any of the provisions of this subtitle, or of any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant thereto, it may issue a written or printed "stop sale" order to the person so acting in violation; and it shall be unlawful for such person, after receipt
