

cases, upon the payment of a prorata license fee for such period, and during the period of such continuation the said license and the executors or administrators of the deceased shall be subject to all of the provisions of this article. The said administrator or executor to which the aforesaid certificate of permission has been granted may assign or transfer said license for the benefit of said estate, and upon the approval of the application for said transfer or assignment, the said license shall be considered reinstated upon the payment of the balance of the license fee which might be due to the expiration of the license year. If the business of the licensee be not continued as above provided, or if the said license be not transferred or assigned, his executors or administrators shall be authorized to apply for and obtain any refund to which the deceased would have been entitled if his license had been surrendered for cancellation upon the date of his death. No Class E, Class F or Class G license shall expire or become inoperative because of the death and/or incompetency of one or more, but less than all, of the persons to whom it is issued for a company. If all of the persons to whom it is so issued shall die and/or become incompetent during its term, such license shall expire ten days thereafter, but, upon application within such ten days, accompanied by a fee payment of $1.00 by a person on behalf of such company, the Comptroller shall issue a new license replacing, and containing the privileges of, such license to the end of the license year.

(b) Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in this Article, in Charles County, upon the death of any married licensee, or upon the death of any licensee holding such license for the benefit of a partnership or corporation, upon application to the official issuing said license, a new license shall be issued to the surviving spouse, the surviving partners for the benefit of such partnership, or the senior surviving officer for the benefit of such corporation without the necessity of any further proceedings.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1967.

Approved April 21, 1967.
