

may be construed as responsible charge of important engineering work or land surveying work.

Members shall not receive compensation for serving on the Board, but shall be reimbursed for all actual traveling, incidental and clerical expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out the provisions of this article.

6.

The Governor may remove any member of the Board for misconduct, incompetency, neglect of duty or for any other sufficient cause. Vacancies in the membership of the Board shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the Governor as provided in Section 3.

7.

The Board shall hold a meeting within thirty days after its members are first appointed and thereafter shall hold at least two regular meetings each year. Special meetings shall be held at such time as the bylaws of the Board may provide. Notice of all meetings shall be given in such manner as the bylaws may provide. The Board shall elect annually from its membership the following officers: a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, and a Secretary. A quorum of the Board shall consist of not less than three members.

(a) The Board shall have the power to adopt and amend all bylaws and rules of procedure, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State, which may be reasonably necessary for the proper performance of its duties and regulation of [the] its proceedings [before it], meetings, records, examinations and the conduct thereof, including the establishment of fees as provided in this article.

(b) The Board shall adopt and have an official seal, which shall be affixed to each certificate issued.

(c) In carrying into effect the provisions of this article, the Board, under the hand of its Chairman and the seal of the Board, may subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance and also may require the submission of books, papers, documents or other pertinent data, in any disciplinary matters, or in any case wherever a violation of this article is alleged. Upon failure or refusal to comply with any such order of the Board, or upon failure to honor its subpoena, as herein provided, the Board may apply to a court of any jurisdiction to enforce compliance with same.

(d) The Board is hereby authorized in the name of the State to apply for relief by injunction in the established manner provided in cases of civil procedure, without bond, to enforce the provisions of this article, or to restrain any violation thereof. In such proceedings it shall not be necessary to allege or prove either that an adequate remedy at law does not exist or that substantial or irreparable damage would result from the continued violation thereof. The members of the Board shall not be personally liable under this proceeding.
