

practice herein the profession of engineering or land surveying, when such practice does not exceed in the aggregate thirty days in any calendar year; provided, such person is legally qualified by registration to practice the said profession in his own state or county in which the requirements and qualifications for obtaining a certificate of registration are not lower than those specified in this article; or

(c) The practice of a person not a resident of and having no established place of business in this State, or who has recently become a resident thereof, practicing or offering to practice herein for more than thirty days in any calendar year the profession of engineering or land surveying, if he shall have filed with the Board an application for a certificate of registration and shall have paid the fee required by this article; provided, that such a person is legally qualified by registration to practice said profession in his own state or country in which the requirements and qualifications for obtaining a certificate of registration are not lower than those specified in this article. Such practice shall continue only for such time as the Board requires for consideration of the application for registration; or

(d) The work of an employee or a subordinate of a person holding a certificate of registration under this article, or an employee of a person practicing lawfully under paragraphs (b) or (c) of this section; provided, such work is done under the direct responsibility and supervision of a person holding a certificate of registration under this article or a person practicing lawfully under paragraphs (b) or (c) of this section; or

(e) The practice of officers and employees of the government of the United States while engaged within this State in the practice of the profession of engineering or land surveying, for said government.

(f) The work or practice of a regular employee of a public utility company, by rendering to such company engineering service in connection with its facilities which are subject to regulation, supervision, and control, in order to safeguard life, health and property by a state or federal regulatory commission having jurisdiction so long as such person is thus actually and exclusively employed and no longer.

(g) The work, or practice of engineering, by officers or employees engaged in manufacturing, or in industrial processes, or in industrial engineering, or in the maintenance and repair of structures of equipment used in such manufacturing or industrial processes, in the plants owned or leased by such corporations or organizations.]

(b) The work of an employee or a subordinate of a person holding a certificate of registration under this article, or an employee of a person practicing lawfully under this section; provided such work is done under the direct responsibility and supervision of a person holding a certificate of registration under this article of a person practicing lawfully under this section; or

(c) The practice of officers and employees of the government of the United States while engaged within this State in the practice of the profession of engineering or land surveying for said government.

(d) The work or practice of a regular employee of a public utility company, by rendering to such company engineering service in con-