(1) The justices of the peace in and for Baltimore, Calvert, Charles, Montgomery, Prince George's, Harford, Carroll, Kent and Queen Anne's Counties, and the judges of the People's Court in Howard and Cecil counties [County] in any case within their jurisdiction, shall have power, before conviction of any person accused of crime, with the written consent of the person so accused, and after conviction or after plea of guilty or of nolo contendere, without such consent, to: (a) suspend that imposition of sentence; (b) place such person on probation before commitment; (c) and in all such cases above named to make such written conditions of suspension of sentence and probation as said justices of the peace may deem proper; and (d) upon determining that such person has violated any such condition, to strike out the suspension of sentence and to impose such sentence as may be authorized by law and to revoke such probation. The provisions of this section shall also apply to St. Mary's County and Cecil County. Provided, however, in Kent, Carroll, Calvert, Harford, Howard, St. Mary's, Cecil and Queen Anne's counties any person placed on probation shall be under the supervision of the State Department of Parole and Probation.

102.

In addition to the justices of the peace authorized to be appointed under the provisions of Sections 100 and 108 of this subtitle, the Governor shall appoint one justice of the peace for Cecil County who shall act as a committing magistrate. He shall preside in the office of the Sheriff every night from 9 P.M. to 6 A.M. He shall have, possess and exercise all the civil and criminal jurisdiction conferred upon other justices of the peace in Cecil County, except that he shall have no jurisdiction to try cases. In addition, he shall have power to take recognizance for the appearance of any accused before the trial magistrate and to act an turnkey during the hours which he is on duty. He shall receive such compensation as shall be prescribed by the County Commissioners of Cecil County. From and after June 1, 1967 committing magistrates for Cecil County shall be appointed pursuant to the local laws thereof and shall have the authority and duties and receive compensation as specified in such local laws.

108.
