

section, to issue writs of subpoena duces tecum, habeas corpus ad prosequendum, and habeas corpus ad testificandum and to establish a traffic school for persons convicted of violating the laws relating to the use and operation of motor vehicles. As a part of the penalty and judgment in their case, all persons convicted of violating any law relating to the use and operation of motor vehicles may be required to attend the traffic school, under the conditions hereinafter described. The traffic school, which shall have as its purposes driver education and safety, shall be under the direction and control of the judges of the People's Court, and it shall be operated by the county police of Prince George's County. Violators may be required to attend the traffic school for a period of time not to exceed an aggregate of ten hours. The traffic school shall be held at such times and in such places as may be designated by the judges of the People's Court.

The laws which heretofore have specified the fees chargeable by trial magistrates and justices of the peace in said counties and also the laws previously concerning the right of appeal from the trial magistrates and justices of the peace in said counties shall continue in all respects to be effective as to the People's Court of Montgomery County and to the People's Court of Prince George's County and to the People's Court of Harford County.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1967.

Approved April 14, 1967.
