

Code, 1965 Edition), as the same were last amended by Chapter 426 of the Laws of Maryland, 1966, as to subsection (b), Chapter 769 of the Laws of Maryland, 1965, as to subsection (c), to repeal the requirement for a second public hearing on the adoption of a plan in Prince George's County and to require a public hearing by the Prince George's District Council before it approves a plan.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Subsections (b) and (c) Section 1(63) of Chapter 780 of the Laws of Maryland, 1959, as amended, be, and the same are hereby, repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

63.

(b) Adoption; procedure. As the work of making the general plan progresses, the commission, from time to time, may adopt a part or parts thereof, any such part to cover one or more sections of the Regional District or one or more of the aforesaid or other functional subjects-matter to be included in the plan. In Montgomery County, before adopting the plan or any part thereof or any extension or amendment thereof or addition thereto, the commission shall hold at least one hearing thereon, thirty (30) days' notice of the time and place of which shall be given by at least one publication in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the Regional District. In Prince George's County, before adopting the plan or any part thereof or any extension or amendment thereof or addition thereto, the commission shall hold a public hearing thereon, thirty (30) days' notice of the time and place of which shall be given by at least one publication in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the Regional District. [In Prince George's County, before the commission may approve a general plan containing any provision not contained in the preliminary general plan, it shall hold a second public hearing upon giving the same notice required for the first hearing, which notice shall also contain a brief description of all variations from the preliminary general plan which it proposes to incorporate into the adopted general plan. In Prince George's County, the commission shall not incorporate into an adopted general plan any matter not contained in a preliminary general plan or a subsequent notice of hearing, except as hereinafter provided.] The adoption of the plan or any part thereof or amendment, or extension or addition thereto shall be by resolution of the commission carried by the affirmative votes of not less than six members of the commission of whom not less than three members shall be from Montgomery County and not less than three members from Prince George's County. No plan or part thereof shall be adopted by the commission unless and until any amendment or extension or addition to the plan presented at the public hearing has been separately enumerated and specifically set forth with the reasons therefor stated in the commission's resolution of adoption. The resolution on the adoption of the plan shall refer expressly to the maps and descriptive and other matter intended by the commission to form the whole or part of the plan, and the action taken shall be recorded on the map, plan, or descriptive matter by the identifying signature of the chairman and secretary-treasurer of the commission. An attested copy of the plan or any part thereof or any amendment or extension or addition thereto shall be certified
