

his office. The titles of offices shall be so arranged that: (1) there shall first appear those titles of offices for which the voters of the entire State or of an entire congressional district may vote as follows: President and Vice-President, Governor, Comptroller, Attorney General, U. S. Senator, Representative; (2) there shall next appear the titles of candidates for judge of the circuit courts of the several counties, the courts of Baltimore City and of the Court of Special Appeals or the Court of Appeals of Maryland THERE SHALL ALSO APPEAR THE TITLES FOR THE OFFICE OF MAYOR OF THE CITY OF BALTIMORE AND COUNTY EXECUTIVE OF THE RESPECTIVE COUNTIES; (3) there shall next appear the titles of offices in the General Assembly of Maryland; and (4) there shall next appear the titles of offices for which the voters of the respective counties or Baltimore City may vote, including, but not limited to, the offices of Sheriff, Register of Wills, State's Attorney, city surveyor, judges of the Orphans' Court and clerks of the CIRCUIT COURTS OF THE SEVERAL COUNTIES AND OF THE several courts comprising the Supreme Bench of said city.

(d) The party designation of each candidate, properly separated from his name, shall be included on all ballots at any general election; provided, however, that such party name shall consist of one word only. In addition, the name of each candidate for State office, the United States Senate and the House of Representatives shall be identified by the county or city in which said candidate resides. The ballots shall be so arranged that exact uniformity, to the extent practicable, will prevail as to size and face of printing of all candidates' names and party designation. The names of all candidates for judge of the circuit courts for the several counties or of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, or for Judge of the Court of Special Appeals or the Court of Appeals, shall be placed on the ballots without any party label or other distinguishing mark or location which might directly or indirectly indicate the party affiliation of any such candidate.

(e) The names of all candidates of a political party shall appear on the ballots in adjacent rows or columns containing generally the names of candidates nominated by such party. In primary elections the names of candidates seeking nomination by a particular party shall be segregated on the voting machines in adjacent rows or columns by parties.

(f) Above the group of names of the candidates for each office, and upon a separate line immediately underneath the designation of the office, there shall be printed in bold, plain Roman capitals of twelve-point pica type, an appropriate direction or instruction to the voter informing him of the number of persons for whom he may lawfully vote for the particular office mentioned immediately above each such direction, as: "Vote for One", "Vote for Two", or "Vote for Six", as the case may be.

(g) When the name of a political party is given in connection with the name of a candidate nominated by petition, it shall be stated on the ballots to the right of the name of the candidate; but if there shall have been any nomination for the same office by a primary election claiming the same party name, duly certified as hereinbefore provided, there shall be then printed to the right of the name of the candidate so nominated by petition, only the word
