

called "account books," to be provided and preserved by him, of all contributions, money or valuable things received by or promised to, and of all expenditures, disbursements and promises of payment or disbursements of money or valuable things made by any political committee, or any of its officers or members, or by any person acting under its authority, or on its behalf or by such treasurer or sub-treasurer, and setting forth in such statement and accounts the sum or valuable thing so received, or disbursed, or promised, as the case may be, and the date when, the name of the person and his address from whom received or promised, or to whom paid or promised, as the case may be, and the object and purposes for which the sum, or other valuable thing, was received, or disbursed, or promised, as the case may be. Such books and records may be destroyed or discarded at any time after one year from the date of election unless a court of competent jurisdiction shall order their retention for a longer period.

(b) (1) The following "campaign contribution receipt" shall be issued by the treasurer or subtreasurer to each person or treasurer of a committee or group or organization of persons making a contribution of ten dollars ($10.00) or more, or upon request for any lesser amount, to the candidate, political committee, or State or local central committee of which he is treasurer or subtreasurer:

Number:.....

Campaign Contribution Receipt

Duplicate (2 colors)

Date:..... day          month          year

Received from: .....
 (name of person(s)) (if individual) or Treasurer (if organization)

Address: .....
           No. and Street          City or Post Office          State          Zip Code

Contributions: .....
                           Amount of cash, service(s), or other item(s)

Name of candidate: .....
 (or organization)

.....
 Signature of Treasurer—Subtreasurer

Amount total: $.....

(2) If such contribution is received by a subtreasurer, he shall forward the duplicate copy of the "campaign contribution receipt" with his report to the treasurer of the candidate, political committee, or State or local central committee for which he is subtreasurer, as required by Secs. 26-14 and 26-15 of this Article.

(3) The treasurer shall retain all "campaign contribution receipts" with his books and records as required by subsection (a) of this section and report the information therein in the statement of contributions and expenditures required by Secs. 26-14 and 26-15 of this Article.