

Mr. Ambrosen had a distinguished career. He served as Principal of the West Virginia School for the Deaf in Romney, West Virginia, from 1939 to 1941. He was a veteran of World War II, serving from 1941 to 1945 as a Navy Lieutenant. Following World War II, Mr. Ambrosen served from 1945 to 1947 as Chief of the Special Rehabilitation Procedures for the Veteran's Administration Branch Office at St. Paul, Minnesota. From 1945 to 1953, he was Principal of the Minnesota School for the Deaf at Faribault, Minnesota. He served as Principal of the Florida School for the Deaf at St. Augustine, Florida, from 1953 to 1955.

In 1955, Mr. Ambrosen came to Maryland as Superintendent of the Maryland School for the Deaf in Frederick, Maryland. He served in this position with honor and distinction until his sudden and untimely death. Effective June 30, 1967, he was to have assumed the position of Assistant to the Head of the National Technical Institute for the Deaf, Rochester Institute of Technology, Rochester, New York.

Among his other achievements, Mr. Ambrosen was a member and Past President of the Frederick Rotary Club. He served as President of the American Instructors of the Deaf, a national organization of teachers of the deaf, from 1963 to 1965. He was instrumental in securing Federal grants for experimental programs in key-punch training for deaf students, for experimental rhythm training films for the deaf, a survey of library facilities in schools for the deaf and recommendations for standards for libraries and personnel.

Mr. Ambrosen was a member of Calvary Methodist Church in Frederick, Maryland, where he also served as a teacher in the Young Couple's Class. He was also a member of the Board of Directors of the Y.M.C.A. of Frederick, Maryland; now, therefore, be it
