

State. The Department of Motor Vehicles, the State Roads Commission, the Department of Post Mortem Examiners, commissions concerned with highway safety, and all law enforcement agencies of the State shall furnish information relative to such accidents at such times and in such form as may be prescribed by rule of the Superintendent.

9. Criminal information.

The Department shall collect, analyze, and disseminate information relative to the incidence of crime within the State, the identity of known and suspected offenders, and the arrest, disposition, and incarceration of such offenders. All law enforcement agencies of the State and all places for the confinement of persons convicted of crime, including Patuxent Institution and hospitals for the criminally insane, shall furnish such information at such times, in such form, and to such extent as may be prescribed by rule of the Superintendent.

10. Dissemination of information to participating agencies.

Any information, records, and statistics collected pursuant to this subtitle shall be available for use by any agency required to furnish information, to the extent that such information is reasonably necessary or useful to such agency in carrying out the duties imposed upon it by law. The Superintendent may by rule establish such conditions for the use of OR availability of such information as may be necessary to its preservation, the protection of confidential information, or the circumstances of a pending prosecution.

11. Dissemination of information to public.

The Department shall at least monthly publish statistics concerning the occurrence and cause of all motor vehicle accidents within the State. The Department shall also publish periodic statistics of the incidence of crime within the State. No such statistical report shall name or otherwise identify a particular known or suspected offender. Reports required by this section shall be distributed to all agencies which contributed information contained in such reports, to the press, and to all other interested persons. In addition, the Superintendent may prescribe by rule the conditions under which reports of specific motor vehicle accidents may be made available upon request to the public; and the fee for furnishing any such report shall be $1.00.

12. Recommendations by Department.

Any report issued by the Department pursuant to the preceding subsection may include recommendations to the Governor and the General Assembly of such legislation as the contents of the reports indicate is necessary or desirable to promote traffic safety, reduce crime, or otherwise insure proper law enforcement.

Regulatory Duties

13. Enumeration.

The Department shall administer the laws relating to the sales of pistols and revolvers, the licensing and supervision of private detectives, the registration of eavesdropping or wiretapping devices,
