

office to be presented by the court. The compensation of said Jury Commissioner shall be determined by the court, ~~with the concurrence of the County Council. The said Circuit Court for Montgomery County, in general terms, by a vote of a majority of all their number, shall have power summarily to remove the Commissioner for absence, inability, or for any misfeasance or malfeasance, and to appoint another person for the unexpired term.~~

(c) Duties and powers

(i) It shall be the duty of the Commissioner to select, qualify and draw all jurors from a fair and complete Master List of residents of the county which shall be compiled and preserved by the Commissioner. UNDER THE SUPERVISION AND DIRECTION OF THE COURT. All existing lists of qualified jurors heretofore used, are hereby continued, and shall constitute the beginnings of the aforementioned Master List. Hereafter, the Commissioner shall procure annually from the county Board of Election Supervisors, the registrations lists of the several election districts of said county for the last general election, and such supplemental lists as are necessary to annually update the list. The Commissioner may similarly procure annually, a listing of those names appearing on the tax books of the county, and such supplemental lists as are necessary to annually update the list. The Commissioner may also use any and all other listings available to him or known to him, which may be necessary to compile and annually update the Master List.

(ii) From the aforementioned listings and annual supplements, the Commissioner shall compile a complete Master List, which shall reflect, as nearly as possible, a fair and complete list of all persons eligible for jury duty in the county. ~~The Commissioner shall be responsible for the collating of said listings for duplication, and for the removal therefrom of persons who have died, removed themselves from the jurisdiction of the court, are disqualified for age, criminal record or such other disqualification as provided for by law.~~

(iii) From time to time, the Jury Commissioner or his assistant shall have the power to send written questionnaires, either by mail or by personal service through the office of the Sheriff of the County, to such number of persons whose names shall appear in any of the aforementioned lists, for the purpose of ascertaining the age, place of residence, citizenship, occupation or employment, condition of health, ability to read and write the English language, criminal record, prior jury service, if any, preference of what term of court he would prefer to serve, and such other pertinent facts as may be deemed necessary. Such person may be summonsed to appear before the Jury Commissioner for personal interviews for the purpose of determining his fitness and availability for jury service. Any person who shall willfully fail to answer such questionnaire, or who should willfully fail to appear for personal interview when duly summonsed to do so, shall be liable to punishment as for contempt of court. Any person who shall make his personal appearance before such Jury Commissioner in response to such summons shall be allowed the same per diem and expenses for his attendance as are allowed by law to duly selected persons.

(iv) The purpose of the Master List is to provide for a means of checking new names for either prior rejection or acceptance. Each year, or as often as deemed necessary by the Commissioner, the
