

questionnaires, both accepted and rejected, shall become part of the Master List. If any person is rejected on the basis of the questionnaire or personal interview, the same shall be noted for future reference.

(v) The Commissioner shall, after conducting interviews, reviewing the questionnaires, and determining disqualification as provided herein, select, on an annual basis, from the names of qualified jurors on the Master List, a Service File which shall contain the names of those persons who have been determined to be acceptable as prospective jurors. Each name on the Service File shall be printed on a separate index card, which shall also contain the actual record of terms served on either petit or grand jury, and the card shall be moved forward two years in the Service File after the person has completed a term of jury service. The Service File, by the month of availability, consolidates alphabetically the names of persons who have previously served with the new names processed in the manner provided for by this Act.

(d) Assistance of public officers

All public officers of said county, embraced within this Act, and of every city, town or village in such county, shall, upon request, at any and all times, render to the commissioner of jurors all the assistance in their power to enable him to procure the names of persons qualified to serve as jurors, and to perform any and all other duties which are imposed upon by this Act. Such officers shall report to the commissioner of jurors upon the criminal records of any person or persons named by such commissioner.

(e) (D) Selection of Panel

(i) In accordance with Section 9 of the Act, AND 10C OF ARTICLE 51, and only so far as it is not inconsistent herewith, the jury commissioner shall, not less than ~~fifteen~~ THIRTY days before the commencement of each term of the court at which jurors are required to attend, in the presence of such practicing members of the bar of said court as he shall think proper to attend, select, in accordance with such rules and regulations as determined by the court, not less than two hundred (200) ~~nor more than one thousand (1000)~~ names from the Service File, ~~without~~ WITH special reference to the intelligence, sobriety and integrity of such person and without the least reference to their political opinions, race, sex, creed or religion, this list to be known as an annual listing.

(ii) ~~From the Annual Listing, the~~ THE foreman of the grand jury shall be selected. BY THE COURT. The ~~remaining~~ names on the Annual List shall be preserved by the commissioner, and shall be divided into sets as provided for under Section 10 (c) of this Article. Upon completion of the annual drawing of sets of jurors as provided for in Section 10 (c), said list shall be preserved for use in compiling such supplemental lists as may be determined by the court. At the completion of said term, the Annual List shall be returned to the Service File in the following manner: all names of persons completing jury service shall be advanced for a period of at least ~~two~~ FIVE years; all names of persons not selected to serve, shall be replaced so as to be available for the next following Annual List, and as closely as possible by month of preference.