81.

(a) The holder of any license issued under the provisions of this subtitle may employ to assist him in his work and in the conduct of his business as many persons as he may deem necessary, and he shall at all times during such employment be accountable for the good conduct in the business of each and every person so employed. Each individual permanent and semipermanent employee of a licensee under Section 78 herein, acting as detective, shall be registered at a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) each; but each individual detective employee required to be registered may be registered and identified by fingerprint and number instead of by name; but no such registration shall be required for an employee acting as a guard or watchman or in any capacity other than as a detective. The employer shall be responsible for the actions and conduct of all employees in connection with such employer's business.

(b) Should the holder of a license falsely state or represent that any person is or has been in his employ, such false statement or misrepresentation shall be sufficient cause for the revocation of such license. Any person falsely stating or representing that he is or has been a detective employed by a private detective business licensed under this subtitle shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(c) Any person who may be or has been employed by the holder of a license under this subtitle shall not divulge to anyone other than his employer, or in such manner and to such person as his employer shall direct, any information acquired by him during such employment in respect to any work to which he shall have been assigned by such employers, except as such disclosure may be required by the provisions of this subtitle or in connection with any investigation of a licensee by the Superintendent.

(d) The holder of any license issued under the provision of this subtitle shall submit to the Superintendent an annual report certified by the holder to the effect that all WITHHOLDING AND SOCIAL SECURITY taxes, workmen's compensation and any required State or Federal obligations PAYABLE FOR OR ON BEHALF OF EMPLOYEES have been paid. Such annual report shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of April in each and every year. Should the holder of a license not file such report within the time hereinabove provided or submit a false certificate, such omission of filing or misrepresentation shall be cause for the revocation of such license. The Superintendent shall have access to all licensee's records referred to in this subsection.

(e) Any person violating any of the provisions of this section, and any employee of a licensed private detective business who shall willfully make a false report or statement to his employer in respect to any matter or thing connected with his employment shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.
