

81A.

Any licensee may divulge to any law enforcement officer or State's attorney of this State, or the Attorney General of this State, or their representatives, any information such licensee may acquire as to any criminal offense, but he shall not divulge to any other person except as he may be required by law so to do any information acquired by him except at the direction of the employer or client from whom the information was obtained.

86A.

Any person who shall be entrusted with a badge, holster, shield, or any other equipment bearing the name, trademark or tradename of any licensed private detective or detective agency, or indicating that such person is a private detective, employee of a private detective agency, a private policeman, a private guard or watchman, who does not return such badge, holster, or other equipment to the owner thereof, within ten days of the termination of his employment or the receipt by him of a request to return same (whichever shall last occur), shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

90. Enforcement; hearings; revocations; suspension; penalty.

(a) The Superintendent shall appoint an officer of the State Police, other than himself, of the rank of lieutenant or above, who shall upon the verified complaint in writing of any person, and who may on his own motion, shall cause an investigation to be conducted of every allegation of any misrepresentation, MISCONDUCT or false statement prohibited by this subtitle. Following such investigation, the Superintendent may hold a hearing, subject to the provisions of Section 91 hereof, at which he shall make a determination whether any violation of this subtitle or any misrepresentation, MISCONDUCT or false statement prohibited by this subtitle has been willfully made.

(b) Notwithstanding that the same offense may constitute a misdemeanor, in the event the Superintendent shall following such hearing, find any person, firm, association or corporation has willfully:

(1) Engaged in or conducted the private detective business, or has engaged as a private detective or investigator or advertised his or its business to be a private detective agency, business or investigator without having first obtained from the Superintendent a license to conduct such business; or

(2) Made a false statement or misrepresentation in the course of an application for any license hereunder; or

(3) Made a false statement or misrepresentation in any annual report, form or certificate required to be submitted to the Superintendent hereunder; the license of such person, firm, association or corporation shall be revoked (if theretofore issued) by the Superintendent.

(c) In the event the Superintendent shall, following a hearing, make a determination that any person, firm, association or corporation has willfully violated any other provision of this subtitle or has willfully made any other false statement or misrepresentation prohibited by this subtitle, the Superintendent shall ~~impose a fine up to~~