

immediately thereupon the jury commissioner, or his assistant shall cause all of the names selected and placed upon the list as aforesaid, to be legibly written or typed upon slips of paper of equal size and of the same color and appearance, which shall be closely rolled or folded and placed in a box of sufficient size, to be marked "Petit Jury Box," such box being divided into seven compartments, which shall be numbered to correspond with the delegate subdistricts of the county, with a sliding top thereon. The names of the persons selected as aforesaid from the respective delegate subdistricts shall be placed in the compartments of such box, respectively, which bear the numbers of the delegate subdistricts where the persons so selected respectively reside, and after so depositing such ballots, the box shall be closed. Each of the petit jury panels to serve during that particular term of court shall then be chosen in the following manner: The judge shall cause the clerk, or one of his deputies, whom the judge shall designate, OR THE JURY COMMISSIONER, OR ONE OF HIS ASSISTANTS (neither the one nor the other who may be so required to act, to be present at the writing, typing, rolling or folding and depositing of the slips into the box as herein directed) to appear then and there in the presence of the judge, the members of the bar as aforesaid, and such other persons as may choose to be present, after well and thoroughly shaking the box so that the ballots in the seven compartments thereof be well mixed, to draw from the box through such opening made by removing the sliding top thereof as will conveniently admit the hand, and exposing but one of such compartments at any one time, and without in any manner looking into the box, one by one, twenty-two of the ballots, and the names appearing on the ballots so withdrawn shall be duly recorded by the judge or by the clerk, in the presence of the judge and under his direction, in the order in which they shall be drawn, and each list so drawn shall constitute and be a petit jury panel for the term of the court immediately following the drawing. In drawing the twenty-two names for each list as aforesaid the ballots shall be drawn as follows: Three names from delegate subdistrict No. 1, four names from delegate subdistrict No. 2, three names from delegate subdistrict No. 3, three names from delegate subdistrict No. 4, three names from delegate subdistrict No. 5, three names from delegate subdistrict No. 6, and three names from delegate subdistrict No. 7.

7-76.

When the list of names selected as directed in the preceding sections of this Code as the grand jury panel is made and certified as therein provided, immediately thereupon the jury commissioner, or his assistant, shall cause all the names selected and placed upon the list as aforesaid, to be legibly written or typed upon slips of paper of equal size and of the same color and appearance and shall be closely rolled or folded and placed in a box of sufficient size, to be marked "Grand Jury Box," such box being divided into seven compartments, which shall be numbered to correspond with the delegate subdistricts of the county with a sliding top thereon. The names of the persons selected as aforesaid from the respective delegate subdistricts shall be placed in the compartments of such box, respectively, which bear the numbers of the delegate subdistricts where the persons so selected respectively reside, and after so depositing such ballots, the box shall be closed. The judge shall then cause the clerk, or one of his deputies, whom the judge shall designate, OR THE JURY COM-