

authority and seek out and nominate persons with a high degree of interest, capacity and objectivity, and who in the aggregate give a county-wide representative character to the local board.

Effective July 1, 1967 members of the local board shall be appointed for three-year terms, to expire on June 30 of the respective years of expiration, or until their successors are appointed. Upon the expiration of two consecutive three-year terms the appointee shall be ineligible, for one year thereafter, for reappointment. On July 1, 1967, the six members of each local board who are serving six-year terms shall continue in office until June 30 of the respective years of expiration of their terms and they shall be ineligible, for one year thereafter, for reappointment. Effective July 1, 1967 a new member shall be added to each local board and effective July 1, 1968 another new member shall be added to each local board, each appointed for a three-year term as hereinabove provided. Any vacancy occurring for any reason during any six-year term or any three-year term, as the case may be, shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(d) Any member of any of the local boards who shall fail to attend at least fifty per cent of its meetings during any period of twelve consecutive months may be considered to have resigned, and the chairman of the board shall forward or cause to be forwarded to the State Department [of Public Welfare] the name of such member, with the statement of such nonattendance, and the State Board may thereupon, in its discretion, declare that a vacancy exists and proceed to have it filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term in the manner provided in the foregoing subsection (c).

(e) If any member of any of the local boards, except the ex officio member serving thereon under the provisions of subsection (b) of this section, becomes a candidate for political office, or accepts public office by election or appointment during the tenure of office on the local board, such candidacy for or acceptance of public office shall be considered as his resignation as a member of the local board, and the chairman of the local board shall forward or cause to be forwarded to the State Department [of Public Welfare] the name of such member, with the statement of such candidacy for or acceptance of public office. The State Board shall thereupon declare that a vacancy exists on the local board and proceed to have it filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term in the manner provided in the foregoing subsection (c).

(f) The provisions of this section apply in the twenty-three counties and not in Baltimore City.

14A. Duties and functions of local [welfare] boards in counties and local commission in Baltimore City [welfare commission].

The board of each local [welfare] department of social services in the counties and the [welfare] local commission of the department of [public welfare] social services in Baltimore City has the following duties and functions (specifically, by way of example and not in limitation):

(1) To select the local [welfare] director in the county from the State merit system list under the provisions of Article 64A of
