

387. Lists of Registered Voters

The Supervisors of Elections of Baltimore City are authorized and directed to provide the Jury Commissioner with the names of registered voters at such times and in such manner as the Supreme Bench shall determine by appropriate rule.

388. Sheriff to Summon Jurors

It shall be the duty of the Sheriff to serve summonses for jury service as issued by the office of the Jury Commissioner; and, at the direction of any Judge of the Supreme Bench, to summon such tales circumstantibus as may be needed in the event of an emergent shortage of available jurors. Any Sheriff of Baltimore City or deputy thereof who shall willfully violate the provisions of this subtitle relating to juries shall forfeit the sum of $1,000, which shall be recovered by civil action in the name of the State against the Sheriff and the sureties of his bond.

389. Grand Jury Clerk and Reporters

The Supreme Bench is authorized to appoint a qualified person to serve as Grand Jury Clerk, who shall be on the staff of the Jury Commissioner, serve at the pleasure of the Supreme Bench, and be paid such salary as shall be provided in the budget of the Supreme Bench. The Supreme Bench is authorized to employ such official reporters as may be necessary to record the proceedings before the grand jury, and such reporters shall be paid such salaries as shall be provided in the budget of the Supreme Bench. At the request of the grand jury, the reporters, the State's Attorney and his assistants are authorized to attend the sessions of the grand jury, but shall not be present when the grand jury votes on any presentment or indictment. The Grand Jury Clerk and every such reporter, before entering upon their duties, shall take an oath before the Clerk of the Criminal Court of Baltimore that they will keep secret all matters occurring before any grand jury; and any clerk or reporter shall, upon conviction of having disclosed to anyone a matter occurring before a grand jury, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of $1,000, or one year imprisonment or both.

390. Duties of Grand Jury

Each grand jury shall, in addition to the duties imposed by law, visit the several penal, correctional, and detention facilities of the City of Baltimore and the State of Maryland which are located within the City of Baltimore, and shall make such other investigations as may be directed by the Judges of the Criminal Court; and each grand jury shall, at the expiration of its term, file a report of its activities and recommendations with the Jury Commissioner.

391. Penalties

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person by any fraudulent contrivance, device, or collusion whatever, to prevent or interfere with a fair operation and lawful and impartial execution of the provisions of this subtitle and the Rules of the Supreme Bench adopted pursuant thereto, or to permit or allow the same to be interfered with or prevented. Any such act shall constitute a misdemeanor and any
