

ment Volume and 1967 Supplement), title "Public Education," subtitle "Community Colleges"; and to add new Subsections (e), (f), and (g) to Section 304 of said Article and subtitle, to follow immediately after Section 304(d) thereof; to provide a system of permitting students to attend colleges in different political subdivisions with inter-subdivision reimbursement of the costs thereof.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 304(d) of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1965 Replacement Volume and 1967 Supplement), title "Public Education," subtitle "Community Colleges," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, and that new Subsections (e), (f), and (g) be and they are hereby added to Section 304 of said Article to follow immediately after Subsection (d) of Section 304, all to read as follows:

(d) Students from outside the State of Maryland who attend a community college or regional community college shall pay a full fee which covers the one-third share of the State and also the one-third share of the political subdivisions in addition to the regular fees and charges for students. Out-of-county or out-of-region (or city) students from Maryland who attend a community college or regional community college shall pay two-thirds of a full fee, which includes the one-third share of the political subdivisions in addition to the regular fees and charges for students. Students residing in one political subdivision or region may attend a community college or regional community college in another subdivision or region where such community college offers a program which is not reasonably accessible to such students in their own subdivision or region; provided, however, that (1) [Any] each political subdivision [which does not operate a community college or regional community college under the provisions of this subtitle may] shall MAY levy and appropriate funds to pay the one-third share of the political subdivisions for its residents who attend a community college [or regional community college for] in another political subdivision or region; and (2) the State Superintendent of Schools may take rules and regulations concerning the attendance of students in community colleges in political subdivisions or regions other than those of their residence, and the amounts and methods of payments by their resident subdivisions.

(e) The chief fiscal officer of each political subdivision shall, upon application and submission to him of satisfactory evidence, issue to any person desiring to enroll in a community college as a nonresident student a certificate of residence showing that said person is a resident of said subdivision. If the chief fiscal officer of a political subdivision refuses to issue such a certificate on the ground that the person applying therefor is not a resident of such subdivision, the person applying may appeal to the State Superintendent of Schools. The State Superintendent of Schools shall make a determination after hearing, upon ten days' notice to such chief fiscal officer of the subdivision, and such determination shall be final and binding on the subdivision. Such person shall, upon his registration for each college year, file with the college such a certificate of residence issued not earlier than two months prior thereto, and
