

WHEREAS, The subject of private, fee charging employment agency laws in the State of Maryland should be completely studied in order that the laws may be revised as found necessary; and

WHEREAS, There has been no general revision of the private, fee charging employment agency laws of the State of Maryland for many years although they have been amended piecemeal from time to time, and it is now desirable that the entire subject be restudied and that a new and modern law on this subject be placed on the statute books; and

WHEREAS, For this purpose the General Assembly is requesting the Governor to appoint a Special Study Commission on private, fee charging employment agency laws; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Governor is requested to name a commission of nine members to serve without compensation, to study and revise the existing private, fee charging employment agency laws; and be it further

Resolved, That to this commission the Governor be and he is hereby requested to appoint two representatives of licensed employment agencies, two representatives of employers, one representative from the State Department of Labor and Industry, one representative from the Consumer Protection Division of the State Law Department, and three representatives who shall be selected from and represent the general public; and be it further

Resolved, That this Commission when appointed be requested to meet and organize promptly and to determine if there is need for revising the existing private, fee charging employment agency laws; and as part of this determination to hear testimony and collect and study data from whatever source available; and be it further

Resolved, That the Attorney General be requested to act as legal advisor to this Commission and that all the several departments, boards, and commissions of the State government be requested to give such information and assistance as is in their power in making this study and investigation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Commission be requested to submit its findings and recommendations to the Governor, the Legislative Council, and the General Assembly on or before September 1, 1968, in order that the proposed revision may be considered by the General Assembly at its 1969 session; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be sent to the Governor of Maryland.

Approved April 10, 1968.
