

(b) Any further civil commitment for alcoholism shall be subject to the provisions of law controlling such commitment.

(c) Neither mail nor other communications to or from a person committed pursuant to this section may be read or censored, except that reasonable regulations regarding visitation hours and the use of telephone and telegraph facilities may be adopted.

307. Criminal Commitment.

A person charged with or convicted of a crime may be committed to an appropriate detoxification unit or alcoholism treatment facility in accord with the provisions of law relating to probation, parole, or other disposition of persons charged with or convicted of criminal offenses.

The provisions of this chapter shall apply to chronic alcoholics who have not been found to be mentally ill under the provisions of law relating to the determination of mental illness. A chronic alcoholic who has been found to be mentally ill is subject to the provisions of law applicable to the mentally ill. In such cases, where treatment for alcoholism is deemed desirable as adjunct to his recovery from mental illness, he shall receive such treatment.

309. Contract with other agencies.

The State and its political subdivisions may contract with any appropriate public or private agency, organization or institution that has proper and adequate treatment facilities, programs, and personnel, in order to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

310. Alcoholism policy for highway safety.

(a) In collaboration with such agencies as the courts, police, and the Department of Motor Vehicles, the Division of Alcoholism Control shall propose appropriate programs of alcoholism education or treatment for individuals convicted of driving under the influence of alcohol under Article 66½, Section 206. These programs shall be coordinated with and integrated into broad planning for comprehensive community health and welfare services.

311. Alcoholism program in Department of Correction.

The Department of Correction shall be responsible for establishing and maintaining, in cooperation with the Division of Alcoholism Control, a program for the prevention and treatment of alcoholism and the rehabilitation of alcoholics in correctional institutions.

312. Alcoholism program for juveniles.

The Division of Alcoholism Control shall be responsible for establishing and maintaining, in cooperation with the State Department of Education and the local Boards of Education in each of the political subdivisions of the State, the schools, the police, the courts, and other public and private agencies, a program for the prevention of intemperance and alcoholism, and the treatment and rehabilitation of incipient alcoholics among juveniles and young adults.
