SEVERABILITY

501.

If any section, term or provision of this article shall be adjudged invalid for any reason, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate any other section, term or provision of said article, but the remaining sections, terms and provisions shall be and remain in full force and effect.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That Section 122 of Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1967 Replacement Volume, 1967 Supplement), title "Crimes and Punishments," subtitle "Disturbance of the Public Peace," is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Any person who shall [be found drunk or acting] act in a disorderly manner to the disturbance of the public peace, or who shall wilfully act in a disorderly manner by making loud and unseemly noises or by profanely cursing, swearing or using obscene language, or by indecently exposing his person on or about any public place or any steamboat wharf, dock or public waiting room, or in or about the station grounds of any railroad in the State, or in or on any steamboat, streetcar, electric car, railroad car, passenger train or other public conveyance, or who shall wilfully catch hold of and solicit persons against the will of said persons, or obstruct their free passage to or through or out of such public place, steamboat wharves, docks, public waiting rooms, railroad stations, streetcars, electric cars, railroad cars, passenger trains or other public conveyance, shall upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars and costs, and when such fine and costs are not paid, the party shall be committed for not less than seven days or more than sixty days to the city or county jail, such party to be released at any time before the term of his imprisonment expires upon the payment of his fine and costs. The justices of the peace for the respective counties of this State shall have concurrent jurisdiction over such offense with the circuit courts for their respective counties; and any person who shall commit any of the crimes, offenses or misdemeanors as defined by this section may be arrested, tried and convicted, as herein provided, in any county or city in this State where said public place may be located, or in any county or city in this State, from, to or through which the said streetcar, electric car,
