14.

(n) Revenue Bonds. Revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this article shall not be deemed to constitute a debt of the State or of any political subdivision thereof or a pledge of the faith and credit of the State or of any such political subdivision, but such bonds shall be payable solely from the funds herein provided therefor from the revenues of the Authority. All such revenue bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that neither the Authority nor the State nor any political subdivisions thereof shall be obligated to pay the same or interest thereon except from Authority revenues and that neither the faith nor the credit nor the taxing powers of the State or any political subdivision thereof is pledged to the payment of the principal or of the interest on such bonds. Under no circumstances shall the faith and credit of Anne Arundel County be pledged under the provisions of this section, and under no circumstances shall any public funds of the county be expended under this article for the purposes of the Authority unless and until the elected representatives of the county in the Senate and House of Delegates of Maryland or [Board of County Commissioners] County Council of Anne Arundel County have consented thereto.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1968.

Approved April 10, 1968.
