

[(f) Failure of any probationer to attend said school as directed shall entitle the magistrate to strike out the order of probation before verdict and proceed with the finding in the case.]

(f) Failure of any probationer to attend said school as directed, without reasonable cause, shall be considered violation of probation and shall be a misdemeanor. Upon conviction thereof, the defendant shall be liable to a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(g) The provisions of this section shall in no way prohibit the probationary schools which have been established and are being conducted on a voluntary basis in the various magistrate's courts in Baltimore County; provided, however, that any such voluntary school shall comply with the minimum standards as established by the Director.

(h) Attendance at these sessions shall be credited toward the drivers' education program of the State of Maryland.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1968.

Approved April 10, 1968.

CHAPTER 239
(House Bill 413)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 24 of Article 25 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1966 Replacement Volume and 1967 Supplement), title "County Commissioners," subtitle "General Provisions," to except Queen Anne's County from the general provisions applicable to publication of county expenses and to provide for a substitute procedure.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 24 of Article 25 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1966 Replacement Volume and 1967 Supplement) title "County Commissioners," subtitle "General Provisions," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

They shall make out and publish annually in at least two newspapers published in their respective counties if there be two, a detailed, minute and accurate statement of the expenses of their said counties, specifying therein each particular item of expense, and for what and to whom paid, and shall also deliver to the sheriff of their respective counties as many copies of such statement as there are election districts in the county, at least ten days before each general election; and the sheriff shall within six days after the receipt of such copies set up one of them at the place of holding elections in each election district, and the clerk of the county commissioners and the sheriff who shall fail to perform the duty imposed by this section shall each forfeit the sum of one hundred dollars. Provided that the
