Said clerk shall record said certificate in a book to be provided by him for that purpose. Any person so licensed removing his residence permanently from one county to another in this State shall before engaging in the practice of optometry in such other county obtain from the clerk of the county or city in which said certificate is recorded a certified copy of such record, or else obtain a new certificate of registration or examination from the Board of Examiners, and shall before commencing practice in such county or city present the same for record to the clerk of such county or city to which he removes, and pay the clerk thereof for recording same a fee of fifty cents. Any failure, neglect or refusal on the part of the person holding such certificate or copy of record to file same for record, as hereinbefore provided, for three months after issuance thereof shall forfeit same. The Board of Examiners shall be entitled to [a fee of one dollar] such a reasonable sum as may be determined by the Board for the reissuance of any certificate, and the clerk of any court issuing the certified copy of such certificate shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for making and certifying a copy of the record of any such certificate.

The Board may revoke any certificate of registration or examination granted by it under this subtitle because of wilful misrepresentation, illegal practice, conviction of crime, whether in this State or elsewhere, habitual drunkenness for six months, preceding the charge, gross incompetency to practice optometry, the employment of other persons as solicitors of business, obtaining any fee by fraud or misrepresentation, employing directly or indirectly any person other than the holder of a certificate of registration or examination granted in accordance with the provisions of this subtitle, to perform any act for which such certificate is required, making use of or authorizing any advertisement containing untruthful or misleading statements, or any other unprofessional conduct; and the Board may refuse to grant a certificate to any person guilty of fraud in passing the examination or guilty at any time of felony or gross immorality or addicted to the liquor or drug habit to such a degree as to render him unfit to practice the profession of optometry; but no certificate shall be revoked nor refused unless written charges have been filed against the accused in person, and at least ten days' written notice of the time and place of the hearing thereon, which shall be public, served upon the accused, and he be given an opportunity to confront the witness against him, offer testimony in his own behalf and be heard in person or by counsel. Witnesses at such hearing shall testify under oath and the Board may enforce the attendance of witnesses. Any certificate which shall have been revoked may in the discretion of said Board be reissued after six months from the date of its revocation, provided the cause for which such certificate shall have been revoked shall no longer exist, and provided further that the person whose certificate shall have been revoked shall show to said Board, upon examination, that he is fully qualified to practice optometry, and shall pay [a fee of fifteen dollars] such a reasonable sum as may be determined by the Board for such reissuance. Any optometrist convicted a second time for violation of the provisions of this subtitle or whose certifi-
