CHAPTER 338

(House Bill 952)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 33(b) and 33(d) of Article 66½ of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1967 Replacement Volume), title "Motor Vehicles," subtitle "Administration—Registration—Titling," to remove the provision whereby the treasurer for Prince George's County is to receive the sum of $2,500 annually for the collection of license tag receipts and relating generally to the collection of license tag fees in Prince George's County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 33(b) and 33(d) of Article 66½ of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1967 Replacement Volume), title "Motor Vehicles," subtitle "Administration—Registration—Titling," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

(b) Commissioner to furnish forms, plates, etc.; costs, expenses, and additional labor; section not applicable in certain counties.—The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall furnish such county treasurer all the necessary forms or blanks, including reports, as well as all metal plates or markers, and all stationery necessary to enable the said county treasurer to perform the duties herein set forth; but each county treasurer shall pay for any additional clerks occasioned in performing these duties out of the fees payable to him. [provided that in Prince George's County there shall also be paid to the county treasurer from the receipts of the fifteen-cent fee the sum of $2,500 annually to cover costs, expenses and additional labor incident to the collection of said receipts, said sum to be disbursed by said treasurer in whatever manner he deems necessary and proper.] The provisions of this section shall not apply to Baltimore and Howard counties.

(d) Additional fee authorized.—Effective with the passage of this section, each treasurer shall be authorized to collect an additional ten-cent fee, provided, however, that such additional charge is authorized by the county commissioners, or county council of the respective counties or the mayor and city council of Baltimore City, and that all additional fees collected under this subsection shall be remitted to the general funds of the county or city. Provided, however, that the treasurer of Harford County shall be authorized to collect an additional $1.00 fee which shall be remitted to the funds
