

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 48 of Article 66 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume and 1967 Supplement), title "Mortgages," subtitle "Secondary Mortgage Loan Law," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

48.

No person, copartnership, or corporation so licensed shall engage in the secondary mortgage loan business, under any other name, or at any other place of business, than that named in the license. Not more than one place of business shall be maintained under the same license and no loans or advancements shall be made, applications received, notes or contracts signed or mortgage, deed of trust or other evidence of indebtedness executed at any other place than that designated in the license, or the office of the lender's attorney but the Commissioner may issue more than one license to the licensee upon the payment of an additional [licensee] license fee and the filing of an additional bond for each license. No licensee shall conduct the business of making loans under this subtitle within any office, room or place of business in which any other business is solicited or engaged in, or in association or conjunction therewith, if the Commissioner shall duly find and establish that the operation of such other business has concealed evasion or violation of this subtitle or of the rules and regulations lawfully made hereunder and shall thereafter order such licensee in writing to desist from such conduct.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1968.

Approved March 22, 1968.
