(r) Oversize motor vehicles.—A fee is hereby imposed on every oversize motor vehicle using the highways of the State. The State Roads Commission may issue a permit for oversize motor vehicles using the highways of the State, and the permit shall specify the route to be followed, and the hour and date on which passage is to be effected and maximum size. The fee to be charged for said permit shall be $10.00, unless otherwise provided in this section.

(s) Overweight vehicles.—A charge is hereby imposed on the weight of all vehicles in excess of that permitted by law and every vehicle having such overweight shall secure a permit from the State Roads Commission, the charge for which shall be $10.00 for a gross weight not exceeding 45 tons. In cases where the gross weight is in excess of 45 tons, the charge for the permit will be $10.00 for the first 45 tons and $1.00 for each additional ton in excess of 45 tons.

(t) Accounting for and disposition of fees.—All fees and charges collected by the State Roads Commission under this section shall be accounted for and paid promptly to the State Comptroller and be credited to the same fund as receipts from motor vehicle licenses and shall be used exclusively for road purposes.

(u) Rules and regulations; form of application blanks; commissions on fees for Classes A and D vehicles.—The State Roads Commission and the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall, acting jointly, have the authority and power to adopt and promulgate rules and regulations as to the application and enforcement of this section, including the adoption of a method or a formula for determining the gross weight of vehicles to which this section is applicable. The State Roads Commission and the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall also have the power, acting jointly, to prescribe the form of application blanks on which shall be shown the information required in connection with the issuance of the licenses required by this section. The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall not be allowed any commission on the collection of the fees for Classes A and D motor vehicles or for making remittances from said fees to Baltimore City and [the] several counties, nor shall he require applicants for motor vehicle licenses to pay postage for same.

(v) Securing license for higher classification during year.—Any person may secure a license for a higher classification any time during the year providing he pays the registration fee for such higher classification, and if he secures such higher classification license during the first six months he shall be required to pay the
