

evidence or produce books, accounts, records, papers and correspondence touching the matter in question. Any person failing to obey such order of court, may be punished by such court as a contempt thereof.

(h) The Board shall receive all fees and other charges collectible pursuant to this subtitle and shall file an annual report with the Comptroller of the Treasury accounting for all such funds collected and for all expenditures of the Board. The authorized expenses of the Board shall be payable only out of the funds which it collects.

(i) Three members of the Board are a quorum for the transaction of ordinary business, but four votes are required to authorize the issuance, denial, revocation, or suspension of any license under this subtitle.

(j) The Board in the name of the State may apply for relief by injunction in the established manner provided in cases of civil procedure, without bond, to enforce the provisions of this subtitle, or to restrain any violation thereof. In such proceedings it is not necessary to allege or prove either that an adequate remedy at law does not exist or that substantial or irreparable damage would result from the continued violation thereof.

The members of the Board and its staff shall not be personally liable under this proceeding.

(k) The Board may employ an investigator or investigators to investigate complaints made to the Board and provide such other assistance as designated by the Board and at the expense of the Board.
