

facility principally engaged in selling food or alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises, including, but not limited to, any such facility located on the premises of any retail establishment; or any gasoline station; (3) any motion picture house, theater, concert hall, sports arena, stadium or other place of exhibition or entertainment; and (4) any establishment (A) (i) which is physically located within the premises of any establishment otherwise covered by this subsection, or (ii) within the premises of which is physically located any such covered establishment, and (B) which holds itself out as serving patrons of such covered establishment. [Except that premises or portions of premises primarily devoted to the sale of alcoholic beverages and generally described as bars, taverns, or cocktail lounges are not places of public accommodations for the purposes of this subtitle.] The provisions of this section shall not apply to a private club or other establishment not in fact open to the public, except to the extent that the facilities of such establishment are made available to the customers or patrons of an establishment within the scope of this section.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1968.

Approved May 7, 1968.

CHAPTER 485
(Senate Bill 3)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 304(a) and (b) of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1966 Supplement), title "Public Education," subtitle "Chapter 31. Community Colleges," revising the schedule for the financing of certain community colleges, changing the ratio of payments on the part of the State, the county, and student fees and charges, and making comparable changes in the allowances to certain students.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 304(a) and (b) of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1966 Supplement), title "Public Education," subtitle "Chapter 31. Community Colleges," be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

(a) Each community college or regional community college operating under the provisions of this subtitle shall be financed on the general basis of receiving one-third of its current expenses from the State, one-third from the county or counties (or Baltimore City) for which it is established, and one-third from fees and charges required from students at the community college. In this computation, "current expenses" shall be the product of the per-student operating cost for the preceding school year or academic term multiplied by the number of full-time equivalent students enrolled in the current school year or academic term.
