

On the question being put,
Determined in the negative.

The question again recurred on the adoption of the amendment offered by Mr. Risteau, to the substitute offered by Mr. Hammond to the motion of Mr. Mason;

Mr. Hammond asked and obtained leave to withdraw the substitute offered by him.

Mr. Risteau then moved his proposition as an amendment to the motion made by Mr. Mason;

On the question being put,

On motion of Mr. Risteau,

The yeas and nays were required and appear as follows :

AFFIRMATIVE.

|              |             |                |

| Long         | Biser       | Hook—57.       |

So the House adopted the amendment.

Mr. Hammond then moved the order as before offered by him together with the amendment just adopted by the House, as a substitute for the motion of Mr. Mason to refer it to the committee already raised on that subject;

On the question being put,

It was determined in the affirmative.

The question then recurred on the adoption of the said order, and being put,

On motion of Mr. Le Grand,

The yeas and nays were required and appear as follows :
