So the amendment was agreed to.

The question then recurred on the passage of said bill, and on being put, it was Determined in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Wilmer,

The house took up for consideration the bill entitled, an act to incorporate the village commonly called and known by the name of Nine Bridges, and to change the name thereof to Bridge Town, in Caroline county;

Read the second time and will pass.

The house then took up for consideration the order of the day, the first in order being the bill entitled, an act for lessening the expenses of Government, the unfinished business of yesterday.

On motion of Mr. Hearn,

The house was called and the door-keeper sent after the absent members in the city.

On motion of Mr. Graves,

The house proceeded with the ordinary business of the session in the absence of the door-keeper.

The house then took up for consideration the bill reported by Mr. Graves from the committee on the constitution, entitled, an act to provide for taking the vote of the people of this State as to the expediency of calling a convention to reform the present and frame a new constitution, and to amend the constitution so as to enable the Legislature to call such convention.

The question being on the substitute reported by Mr. Mason, being a bill entitled, an act for taking the sense of the people of the State of Maryland, upon the subject of a convention to reform the constitution.

The door-keeper returned and reported that he had notified the absent members in the city that their attendance was required in the house.

The house resumed the consideration of the bill entitled, an act for the lessening of the expenses of Government.

The question being on the motion of Mr. Spence to amend the motion of Mr. Ristean by adding thereto the following, "and two
