

Mr. Wilmer moved further to amend said amendment by striking out "one dollar per day" and inserting "a sum not to exceed the regular pay of militia in service."

On the question being put—

On motion of Mr. Owens,

The yeas and nays were required and appear as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Coad	Holmes	Quynn
Shaw	Lloyd	Biser
Constable	Colston	Simmons
Welsh, of K.	Humphreys	Firor
Ridgely	Frazier	Sutton
Owens	Tall	Hope
Estep	Willson	Sangston
Dalrymple	Foard	Thawley
Stevens	Welch of A.	Giles
Bruce	Wilmer	Graves
Poultney	Temples	Seidenstricker
Welch of B.	Selby	Parke
Risteau	Hearn	Bramwell—40
Stansbury

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Hammond	Mason	Berry
Hellen	Newcomer	Price
Winder	Byer	Newman
Heckart	Keppler	Crabbs
Tuck	Waters	Hook
Maccubbin	Dade	Mr. Speaker—20.
Polk	England

So the amendment was adopted.

The question then recurred on the adoption of the amendment as amended, and on being put—

It was determined in the affirmative.

The question then recurred on the house assenting to the resolution as amended, and on being put—

It was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Giles, chairman of the committee on lotteries, made the following report:

The committee on lotteries, to whom was referred the memorial of John McKeim, jr., Joseph King, jr. and upwards of twenty-five hundred citizens of Baltimore, praying "that an early period may be fixed for the closing of all the unexpired grants, and that a law may pass to prohibit the sale of foreign lottery tickets" beg leave to

REPORT:

That they have had the said memorial under consideration. That the said memorialists are among the most intelligent and respectable of our citizens, representing almost every department of society, and numbering among them some of the most exemplary