So the substitute was adopted.

Mr. Legrand moved the following as an additional amendment to the said substitute,

And that the same committee request the president of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal company to report to this house at as early a day as practicable, what sale or hypothecation of the bonds of the State have been made, under what circumstances and at what rate.

On the question being put will the house adopt the said amendment?

Determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Hammond moved the following as an amendment to the said order to come in after the words "on the subject," and any other information which the said president may deem necessary for the proper understanding of the expediency of the arrangement which he has effected with the Barings in regard to the state's bonds.

On the question being put,

Determined in the affirmative.

The question then recurred on the adoption of the order offered by Mr. Mason as amended, and on being put,

Determined in the affirmative.
