Wilmer	Sangston

So the motion to postpone indefinitely did not prevail.

Mr. Bowie then moved to amend the 1st section of said bill, by striking out all after the words "Be it enacted," to the end of said bill, and inserting the following: "That the salaries of all public officers in this State created by law, the per diem allowance of the members, clerks and other officers of the Legislature, and the fees allowed by law to sheriffs, collectors, clerks of the courts and registers of wills in the several counties of this State, and all other officers who receive fees, be and the same are hereby reduced twenty-five per centum on their present amounts."

Which was read.

Mr. England moved to amend said amendment by striking out the word "sheriff."

On the question being put, will the house agree to amend the amendment by striking out the word "sheriff,"

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Giles moved to strike out the enacting clause of the bill.

On the question being put,
