So the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Coad moved to postpone the further consideration the said bill and amendments until this day week;

On the question being put,

It was determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Spence,

The following was added to the third section: "So far as the same may be necessary under the provisions of this act."

Mr. Spence moved to amend the 4th section of said bill by striking out all after the words "and be it enacted" and inserting the following:

"That the Lottery Commissioner now appointed or hereafter to be nominated by the Governor, and by and with the consent of the Senate appointed, shall reside in the city of Baltimore, and shall receive an annual salary of two thousand dollars and no more, in lieu of all other compensation.
