Which was read.

On the question being put, will the house adopt the said substitute?

Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred on concurring in the said report, and on being put, it was

Determined in the affirmative.

The next in order is the resolution submitted by Mr. Ridgely in relation to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company.

On motion of Mr. Ridgely,

Referred to the committee on internal improvements.

The next in order is the report of the committee on claims, on the memorial of Robert McCulloch, of Allegany county;

Read the second time.

Mr. Newman moved as a substitute for the same the following:

Whereas, Captain Robert McCulloch, Captain Alexander King, and Captain George W. Haller, of Allegany county, have memorialized the Legislature, asking for remuneration for their respective companies for services rendered the State during the month of last August, in suppressing the riots on the line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal; and whereas, said companies were ordered to march to said line of canal by Gen. O. H. Williams, who received authority from the Governor, requiring said companies promptly to repair to, and quell said riot; and whereas, in obedience to the order said companies did forthwith leave their fields, work-shops, &c. and marched with a determination to support the supremacy of the law, and bring the violators of the peace to punishment; and whereas, said companies were employed in the service of this State for six successive days, at a season of the year when they ought to have attended to their business, upon which alone most of them depend for a livelihood—Therefore,

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore be directed to pay Col. Charles W. Thruston, militia allowance for each member of the different companies of Allegany county, that were engaged in suppressing the riots last August, on the line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal.

Resolved, That Col. Thruston be directed to pay said money, to the captain of each company, that was engaged as aforesaid, the amount due them respectively;

Which was read.

On the question being put:

Will the house adopt the said substitute?

Determined in the affirmative.
