So the said bill was passed.

The rule being suspended,

Mr. Bowie from the committee on internal improvements made the following report:

The undersigned, one the committee of internal improvements of this house, having been absent from the seat of government when Mr. Mason, the chairman of that committee, and Mr. Seidenstricker another of its members reported their respective and adverse bills, making appropriation for the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland, and differing in opinion with both these gentlemen, as to the proper policy for the State at this critical and eventful period of its financial embarrassments, begs leave to report his views on this important subject, in the form of the following bill:

A bill, entitled, an act to provide for the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland;

Read the first time and laid on the table.

Mr. Blakistone moved that the house do now adjourn;

On the question being put,

It was determined in the negative.

Mr. Risteau moved that the house do take a recess until half past 4 o'clock.

Before the question was put,

Mr. Ridgely moved that the house take a recess until half past five o'clock;

On the question being put,

It was determined in the negative.

Mr. Bowie then moved that the house take a recess until five o'clock;

On the question being put,

It was determined in the negative.

The question then recurred on the motion of Mr. Risteau to take a recess until half past 4 o'clock;

On being put,

It was determined in the affirmative.
