

The house took up for consideration the bill entitled, an act to provide for the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland;

And the bill entitled, an additional supplement to the act entitled, an act to provide for the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland, and of the Baltimore and Susquehanna Rail Road to the borough of York;

On motion of Mr. Mason,
Said bills were made the special orders of the day for to-morrow, excluding the consideration of all other business.

The next order of the day is the bill entitled, an act relating to the office of attorney general, and providing for the appointment of district attorneys in the several judicial districts of this State, and for Baltimore city court;

Mr. Bowie moved to refer the said bill to the consideration of the next General Assembly;

On the question being put—
It was determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Bowie,
The house was called and the door-keeper sent after the absent members in the city.

The speaker resumed the chair.

On motion of Mr. Newman,
The house proceeded with the ordinary business of the session in the absence of the door-keeper.

The rule being suspended,

On motion of Mr. Newman,
The house took up for consideration the resolution from the senate authorising the examiner general of the land office to examine a certificate of land called "Yarmouth;"

Read the second time, assented to and returned to the senate.

The rule being suspended,

Mr. Le Grand, chairman of the committee on corporations, reported a bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Washington and Fredericksburg Steamboat company;

Read the first time and made the order of the day for to-morrow.

On motion of Mr. Bowie,

The house took up for consideration the bill entitled, a further supplement to the act relating to the inspection of tobacco in Prince George's county;

Read the second time.

The door-keeper returned and reported that he had notified the absent members in the city that their attendance was required in the house.

The house resumed the consideration of the bill entitled, an act relating to the office of attorney general and providing for the appointment of district attorneys in the several judicial districts of this State, and for Baltimore city court;

Mr. Bowie moved to strike out the first section of the said bill,