

of eight hundred and thirty-two dollars, out of any unappropriated money in the treasury.

RICHARD ESTEP,
EBENEZER WELCH,
WILLIAM H. SELBY.

Read the first and by special order the second time.

On motion of Mr. Byer,

Laid on the table.

Mr. Tuck, from the committee on grievances and courts of justice, made the following report :

The committee on grievances and courts of justice, to whom were referred the petitions and memorials following, to wit:—
“Several memorials of citizens of Washington county, praying additional legislative restrictions upon hawkers and pedlars; and also several petitions and memorials counter thereto.”

“The memorial of the Potomac and Allegany Coal and Iron Manufacturing Company, praying the right to hold certain property in Allegany county.”

“Several memorials of citizens of Frederick and Washington counties, praying a repeal of the magistrates’ courts law, so far as relates to said counties, and to increase the jurisdiction of single magistrates.”

“The memorial of George R. Smith, praying the passage of an act for the benefit of certain persons therein named.”

“The memorial of Samuel W. Staples, of Cecil county, asking that he may be indemnified for damages done him by the Eastern Shore Rail Road.”

REPORT:

That at this late period of the session they have not been able to devote to the said petitions, that attention which their importance seems to require. The committee express no opinion upon the merits of these applications. They pray to be discharged from the further consideration of them, and that the memorialists respectively have leave to withdraw their memorials.
