By the Senate, March 20, 1840.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

We herewith return to you the bill, entitled, an act for the protection, and to provide for the measuring of oysters. We have assented to the third amendment proposed by your honorable body with the further amendment of striking out “county” and inserting “and Dorchester counties.” The senate dissent from the other amendme its proposed, and respectfully ask your honorable body to recede therefrom.

By order,

Joseph H. Nicholson, C'lk.

And the bill, entitled, an act to repeal the several acts, passed December session, 1839, authorising the granting of lotteries ;

Endorsed “will pass.”
