

So the house refused to adopt the said amendment.

Mr. Bowie moved to amend said section by striking out the words "current in this State," and inserting the following: "receivable at par at the banks of this State and the District of Columbia."

On the question being put, it was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Ridgely then moved to amend said section by adding thereto the following: "But provided, that this act shall not go into effect until the Government of the United States shall have surrendered to the State of Maryland, the stock which it now holds in the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, upon the condition prescribed by the act of 1838, chapter 396."

On the question being put,
