So the said bill was passed and returned to the senate.

The house then took up for consideration the following bills:

The bill entitled, an act authorising John T. Singleton, of the State of Virginia, to bring into this State certain slaves for life;

The bill entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act to repair injuries done by rail road carriages and engines upon the several rail roads of this State, passed December session 1838, chapter 244;

The bill entitled, an act to provide for the establishment of a public landing on Piscataway creek and to open a road thereto from Piscataway in Prince George's county;

The bill entitled, an act for the more equal distribution of the fund applied to education in Kent county;

The bill entitled, an act for the better regulation of the banking institutions of this State;

The bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Jackson Beneficial society of Baltimore;

The bill entitled, an act for the relief of William Brewer;

The bill entitled, an act relative to James Perey, of Allegany county, and the Cumberland road;

The bill entitled, an act for the encouragement of agriculture and manufactures;

The bill entitled, a supplement to an act to establish magis-
