

lutionary claims, made favorable reports upon the petitions of Teresa Hays, Mary Allen, and Hannah Adams, severally praying for pensions, accompanied with the following resolutions:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the treasurer of the Western Shore of Maryland, pay to Hannah Adams, of Atlantic county, in the State of New Jersey, or order, during her life, the half pay of a private, in consideration of services rendered by her husband, Mark Adams, during the revolutionary war.

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore of Maryland, pay to Mary Allen, or order, during her life, the half pay of a private, in consideration of services rendered by her husband, John Allen, during the revolutionary war.

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore of Maryland, pay to Teresa Hays, or order, during her life, the half pay of a private, in consideration of services rendered by her husband, John H. Hays, during the revolutionary war.

Which were severally read the first and by a special order, the second time, the reports concurred in, and the resolution therein contained severally assented to;

Mr. Tuck, chairman of the committee on grievances and courts of justices, to which was referred the bill reported by Mr. Simcoe, entitled an act to make valid a certain deed therein mentioned, reported the same with the following amendment:

Amendment proposed,

Strike out all of the bill from the words "section four," in the 8th line,

Which was read and assented to,

The said bill was then read the second time by a special order as amended and passed.

Mr. Coombs, from the select committee, to which was referred the bill from the senate, entitled a supplement to an act entitled, an act to abolish Magistrate's Courts, in Allegany county, and to extend the jurisdiction of single justices of the peace, in said county, passed December session. 1839, ch. 77, reported the same with the following amendment:

Amendment proposed,

"Sec. 2d, second line after the word "of" strike out "fifteen," and insert "twelve and a half,"

Which was read,

The said bill was then read the first and by a special order the second time, and passed with the proposed amendment.

Mr. Lecompte, from the committee on corporations, to which was referred the bill from the Senate, entitled a supplement to an act, entitled an act to incorporate the Trustees of the Poor of Baltimore city and county, reported the same with the following amendment: