So the bill was rejected.

The house then proceeded to consider the second order of the day, being the bill from the senate, entitled an act supplemental to an act, entitled an act respecting the equity jurisdiction of county courts, and the amendments reported thereto from the committee on grievances and courts of justice.

The amendments reported by the committee having been read the second time, were assented to.

On motion of Mr. England,

Said bill was laid on the table, and ordered to be printed as amended.

The house then proceeded to the consideration of the third order of the day, being the bill reported by Mr. Frazier, entitled an act to authorise the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to license wood hucksters in the city of Baltimore.

On motion of Mr. Rider,

Said bill was referred to the committee on inspections.

Mr. Nesbitt submitted the following order; which was twice read and rejected:
