So the house agreed to take up said bill.

The house then proceeded to consider the bill, entitled an act for the general valuation and assessment of property in this state, and to provide a tax to pay the debts of the state.

On motion of Mr. Le Grand,

Said bill was amended, by inserting after the word "interest," in the 1st section, 12th line, these words: "except for debts due for goods sold and delivered after the passage of this act."

On motion of Mr. Lecompte,

Said section was further amended, by striking out, in the 7th and 8th lines, the words "and bearing interest;" and also by striking out, in the 12th line, the same words.

On motion of Mr. Tuck,

Said section was further amended, by inserting after the word "elsewhere," these words: "the interest or proportion in;" and by striking out in the 5th line, the words "in whole or in part."

Mr. Bowie moved further to amend said section, by inserting after the words "United States," in the 15th line, the words "or this state;"

Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Bowie,

Said section was amended by inserting, after the word "his," in the 25th line, the words "or her."

Mr. Forman moved further to amend said section, by striking out from the word "act," in the 33d line, to the end of said section;

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Lecompte moved to amend said bill, by striking out, in the 1st section, after the enacting clause, to the end of said section, and and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"That all the real and personal property within this state, of any and every kind whatsoever, belonging to any citizen or citizens of this state, or other person, or to any corporation or corporations, shall be valued agreeably to the directions of this act, and shall be chargeable according to such valuation, with the public assessment, as pro-
