So the house refused to refer said bills to the consideration of the next General Assembly.

On motion of Mr. Graves,

The house took up for consideration the bill reported by him, entitled an act to prohibit any corporation, or individuals, or association of individuals, from issuing any paper intended to circulate as money or currency;

On motion of Mr. Causin,

Said bill was amended by inserting after the word "corporation" in the 5th line, the words "except as before provided;"

Mr. Causin moved further to amend said bill by inserting after the word "corporate," in the second line, the words "except whose issues are now or may hereafter be recognised by law;"

Pending this motion,

Mr. Causin moved that the house take a recess until 5 o'clock, P. M.,

Resolved in the affirmative.
