So the house refused to lay the order and amendments on the table.

The question then recurred and was put, upon the amendment to the amendment as offered by Mr. E. A. Lynch, and

Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, upon the amendment as offered by Mr. Tuck and amended upon the motion of Mr. E. A. Lynch, and

Resolved in the affirmative.

The question then recurred upon the adoption of the order as amended,

Mr. Graves called for a division of the question upon the two first ranches of the order, so as to take the vote upon the original order and the amendment as proposed by Mr. Tuck,

Mr. Presstman called for a division of the question upon each ranch of the order as amended, which the Speaker decided to be a reference motion.

The question was then put upon the first branch of the order, and

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Presstman,

The yeas and nays were ordered, and appeared as follows:
